

Adjectives ending in-ing and -ed

Прилагательные,
оканчивающиеся на -ing и -ed

Прилагательные, оканчивающиеся на -ed, используются для описания чувств людей

I am never bored with my friends.

In my childhood I was excited about collecting stamps.

Прилагательные, оканчивающиеся на -ing,
используются для описания предметов,
вещей или занятий, которые вызвали
какие-то чувства

I don't want to watch the film. It is boring.

In my childhood I collected stamps. It was very exciting.

Прилагательные, оканчивающиеся на -ed, используются для описания чувств людей

I am never bored with my friends.

In my childhood I was excited about collecting stamps.

Amelia Earhart's
idea to fly
around the world was surprised/surprising.

The Legends of King Arthur and His Knights

King Arthur's
army won many battles in the sixth century. Its actions were horrificed/
horrifying for anemies.

Kate Winslet is an excited/exciting
British actress.

Her role in Titanic
was interesting/interested.

The girl in W. Hogarth's The Marriage Settlement is frightened/frightening to marry.

The picture is amusing/ amused.

The pupils are boring/ bored
at the lesson.

